What can you contribute?

We are looking for organisations and individuals to work with us and commit to fulfilling the aims of the Afrikan Emancipation Day Reparations March (AEDRM) which is an annual commitment building up to the day of the march. We are asking you to tick the boxes against the tasks that you are able to commit to. As part of the commitment we ask that you leave your details so we can check in with you to see how things are progressing. Without this level of communication and accountability we will not achieve our shared objectives. Please fill in the contact details section (on both forms) and tick the boxes that apply:
